Must Use Union Made Coffins.

The Chicago Federation of Labor has declared war on the Chicago Undertakers' Association, branding the body a "trust of the worst order."

The open declaration of hostilities was made at Sunday's meeting of the central labor body. After a lengthy discussion of the subject these conclusions were arrived at by the delegates to the meeting: No union man shall purchase a non-union coffin, or assist in paying for a non-union coffin for a member of his family or a friend.

No union man shall act as pallbearer at a funeral where a non-union coffin is used.

When the services of an undertaker are needed by a friend of a union man, it is his duty as a trade unionist to tell the members of the bereaved family how to secure a union coffin.

An investigation of the methods of acting and prices charged by the members of the Chicago Undertakers' Association shall be made at once and ways and means of suppressing the trust found.

The subject came up when a communication from the Woodworkers' Union was read which contained a complaint because of the supposed discrimination of the undertakers against union made coffins. Price list was attached showing that union coffins ranged in price from $5 to $40. Undertakers, according to the same information, charge anything from $50 to $300 for the same coffin.

No reason why the undertakers discriminated against the union men was set forth, but it was hinted that it was because the workers had suggested a union of professional pallbearers about two years ago.

Killed by Burglar.

Mrs. John Morrison, aged twenty-three years, was shot and killed early yesterday as she lay in bed with her fifteen-months-old child at their home in Cumbola, near Pottsville, Pa. John Morrison, her husband, said she was killed by a masked burglar, who, with two other masked robbers, visited the house before dawn.

According to Morrison, who is a fireman in an anthracite coal colliery, he was awakened by three masked men, who, at the point of revolvers, demanded that he give them money he had hidden on the first floor of his home. Two of the intruders, he says, accompanied him down stairs while the third stood guard over his wife. After handing over the money, he says, they made him return to bed.

The men then left the room, and as they were going down the stairway he fired two shots at them, causing the burglars to flee. As no bullet marks could be found in the house, he believes he shot one or more of the burglars.

Upon returning to bed, Morrison says, he found his wife dead, with a bullet in her left temple. He then gave the alarm. The husband says he believes the wife recognized the burglar who stood guard over her, and that the man instantly shot her.

The police are much mystified over the tragedy. Morrison is treasurer of a gun club, and was known to have about $75 of the organization's money in his home. About a month ago Morrison said he was held up by three masked men who robbed him of $15.

Settlement in Sight.

The opinion has gained ground all day in Algeciras, Spain, that a settlement of the Franco-German controversy before the conference on Moroccan reforms is merely a matter of hours. It was current yesterday evening that terms of a compromise had been practically arranged and that announcement of an actual settlement probably would be made at the next plenary sitting of the conference, the date of which has not yet been definitely fixed, but which is expected to be held either today or Wednesday.

Details of the compromise are not obtainable, but it is stated that the concessions relate to both the police and the bank questions, the outstanding points of which are subject to mutual recession from the apparently rigid standpoints which France and Germany hitherto have maintained.

It is understood that the forward move is the result of pressure from the representatives of the neutral powers, who have displayed considerable impatience over the delay and urged that increased efforts be made by the French and German delegates toward a practical solution of the difficulties.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons druggists.

The Recent Storm.

The whole country east of the Mississippi river is, according to reports to the Weather Bureau, experiencing the effects of the prevailing storm, with temperatures below the average for this time of the year. Heavy rains have fallen in the south and snow in the north. The storm began Sunday night in the south and extended into New England, New York, the lower lake region and the upper Ohio Valley, where the rain turned into snow yesterday. The rivers in the States of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and the Carolinas are bank full, and stages above the danger line are expected today in a majority of the big waterways. The storm is expected to pass down the St. Lawrence Valley during the next twenty-four hours and fair weather today is the prediction of the Weather Bureau for the region east of the Mississippi river, except in New England and eastern New York, where it will not clear until late in the day. High easterly gales have prevailed off the New England coast, with strong winds along the Middle and South Atlantic coasts.

After Richmond Dives.

The police department of Richmond has begun a movement which will put many of the city's disreputable resorts out of business. For more than a month the department has been discussing plans to close the so-called social clubs and dives. It is said that the police have compiled a list of these resorts, which will be submitted to the court prior to the granting of licenses, together with the record of each applicant and the troubles which have occurred in each place. The department will contest every application. It is believed that as a result the number of saloons in Richmond will be largely decreased. The legitimate clubs will not be molested but the Sunday saloons operated under the guise of clubs will receive attention.

Perilous Position of Young Woman.

While Miss Annie Rode, day telegraph operator for the Southern Railway at Caseys, in the suburbs of Lynchburg, was crossing Shaners trestle, over Fishing creek, not far from her office, Sunday, No. 40 fast passenger train from the south came around a curve. To remain on the track meant death; to jump into the creek, twenty-five feet below, was perilous, but she saved her life by clinging to the end of the ties by her hands, her body suspended over the creek while the train passed. After the train had passed, she pulled herself onto the trestle again, spraining one of her hands and dropping a watch and pocketbook in the creek. Then she reported at the office and went to work.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 20, 1906.

AN ITEM in yesterday's Gazette, followed by an item today, will be read with considerable uneasiness by all having the commercial interests and peace of Alexandria at heart. It is feared that the Portner Brewery is destined to pass through troubles incident to demands of those at the head of certain labor organizations. Heretofore Alexandria has been a spectator of turmoils which have distracted other cities and caused bad feeling between employers and employees, and should the friction now in evidence between the brewery officials and their operatives be adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned the community at large would rejoice. The item in the local columns, in a measure, gives the causes of the troubles. It is said that the local organizations are in no wise dissatisfied at the relations which exist between them and the officials of the brewery, but that the demands now being urged upon the latter emanate from other cities and from certain men who occupy high positions in labor circles. Whether this be true or not, the fact remains that trouble is imminent, which may result in the closing of the brewery, an event all would deplore. The Portner Brewery has been one of Alexandria's most prosperous enterprises, employing many men at remunerative wages, and to see it hampered in any way or its output from any cause lessened would be a serious matter not only to the company but to the business interests of Alexandria. Many years ago the whir of the spindles of a cotton factory were heard in a building now occupied as an annex to the brewery. It has passed away, like some other cherished institutions. The sound of the machinery, however, had barely died away when the massive and modern brewery appeared to take its place, the products of which have attained a national reputation. It is therefore hoped that the impending troubles may be settled as early as possible and that former relations between the employees and their employers be prolonged by bonds of mutual confidence and good feeling.

THERE SEEMS to be a theological war in Philadelphia, where evangelists are engaged in stirring up religious zeal. The Torrey-Alexander mission is said to have been instrumental last Sunday in converting one hundred and fifty persons. Evangelist E. E. Franke, of New York, is also conducting meetings in the Quaker City. The Apostle Paul wanted converts in his day to be one soul, but religious people seem to stray farther from that standard as time goes on, as is shown by the following observations of Mr. Franke:

The teachings of Dr. Torrey make of God a monster rather than a God of love. He holds that for a short lifetime of evil-doing here on earth man is to spend all eternity in everlasting torment. He says that hell is literal fire and that it is eternal. This theory is trumped up simply to get men to accept religion in order to save their own skins. It wins through dread of punishment rather than because men choose to do right for their own sakes. I will thank God when the spirit of Jesus Christ is preached in all its simplicity. Then men will not be misled by sentimental deathbed stories, and they will be converted without the fires of hell back of them. I thank God that Philadelphia has refused to swallow Torrey. Let Christ live in your lives, and you need have no fear of hell.

Professor Nathaniel Schmidt, of Cornell University, who lectured to members of the Society for Ethical Culture in Philadelphia last Sunday on "The Religion of the Unchurched," seems to have thrown bombshells into all religious camps. According to Dr. Schmidt, members of the clergy assign sordid commercialism, greed, licentiousness, card playing, theatres, laziness and other physical conditions as the reasons why the masses are drifting away from the church. "These reasons are not the true causes for empty pews," said he. He continued:

The church is a capitalistic institution. That is why there are so many empty benches in many. Rich men of doubtful characters are among the pillars of many churches, and men who think for themselves prefer to get religion outside of the church rather than accept teachings from men of this character. * * * Even the stage does more for the betterment of humanity than the pulpit, for serious questions of life are seldom discussed in the pulpit, but they are often thrashed out on the stage.

THE TAMMANY general committee last night adopted a set of strong resolutions denouncing specialism, proclaiming for municipal operation of public utilities only as a resource, so thoroughly denouncing every issue for which William Randolph Hearst and his independence league stands, that its action is generally interpreted to be a repudiation of Hearst and the serving of notice that he will not be supported by Tammany for the nomination for governor. This action was taken after Hon. W. Bourke Cochran had delivered a thrilling speech. The resolutions also attack the republican party and charge it with being responsible for the graft in high finance recently exposed. The people are called upon to turn to the democratic party as the only one to defeat the republicans and at the same time save the country from the perils of socialism. Not a word in criticism of Mayor McClellan appears in the resolutions, which breathe the spirit of the conservative forces in the party which are in league with the Mayor, former Judge Parker, Grover Cleveland and other opponents of Hearstism. The action of the Tammany committee will be approved by all conservative and well-meaning men in the democratic organization. That there [illegible] to its kite-flying recent years has long been apparent.

From the newspaper biographies of Mr. Charles H. Francis, just appointed ambassador to Austria-Hungary, it would seem that one of the chief reasons which actuated the President in making the appointment was that Mr. Francis, while at Cornell, was an athlete and had won several championships in athletic sports.

From Washington.

Washington, March 20.

John F. Wallace, former chief engineer of the Panama canal, in a statement this morning before the Senate committee endorsed the majority plan of the board of consulting engineers in favor of a sea-level canal at Panama. He agreed with the preceding witnesses, Professors Burr and Parsons, that there is serious doubt as to the permanency of the proposed big dam at Gatun, which is the key of the lock canal plan. Mr. Wallace said that the only objections to the sea-level canal are the factors of relative time and cost of construction. He adopted the calculations of Professor Parsons, that the extreme time required would be 12 years compared with 9 years for the lock canal, and said that as the work on the sea-level plan was the every day work of digging and hauling away what is dug, he thought it was possible to further reduce the time of construction, especially if the work was done under contract. As to the cost, Mr. Wallace said that the commerce passing through the canal would in the near future pay the interest on the bonds issued to construct it. If 10,000,000 tons per annum passed through, even at the low rate of a dollar a ton, the income would be sufficient to justify an expenditure of $30,000,000, which would be ample. Because of the advantages of the sea level type, about which there were no elements of doubt, Mr. Wallace did not therefore believe that the factors of time and cost should weigh heavily in deciding the question of type. He suggested that if any accident should happen to the dams or locks of a lock canal the repairs might take several years, and the world having become accustomed to the advantages of the canal would incur such a loss of time with the greatest possible sense of injury. He strongly urged building the canal by contract and the equipment of the Panama Railroad with the best modern facilities for the transference of cargoes from ships to cars and from cars to ships during the construction of the canal. He recommended that the railroad should be separated in management and control from any steamship line at each end and be made a simple transfer line across the isthmus, charging a flat rate per ton. This, he said, would do away with the necessity for the present corporate organization of the road in New York.

Admiral Dewey today gave the house committee on naval affairs his views on what the American navy needs and expressed himself in favor of the construction of big battleships like the British terror, the 18,000 ton "Dreadnaught," and of the addition to the navy of submarine boats. He thought, also, that a few boats of the monitor class should be added for use in time of peace, and he expressed himself in favor of submarine boats because, in time of war, they could be relied upon to harrass the enemy if any of our ports should ever be besieged.

Existing laws in several states regarding the compulsion of labor unions to come under the insurance provisions were discussed this morning at the session of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. It was decided to make an effort to have all unions come under the provision of the law, applying to fraternal societies.

Representative Stephens, of Texas, today introduced a bill in the House, authorizing the President to negotiate for the purchase by the United States of the coal and asphalt deposits in the Choctaw, and Chickasaw lands in Indian Territory, at a price not exceeding $5,000,000. The lands under the Stephens bill, are to be leased for the benefit of the school funds in whatever new State they may be located by the legislature of that State. The leases become void if the lessees go into a combine with any railroad for the control of the prices of the coal and asphalt in question.

Representative Sherman, of New York, stated today that he would accept the chairmanship of the republican congressional committee if it is offered to him. Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, the present chairman, positively refuses to serve again.

Liberia, founded nearly a century ago by Henry Clay and his followers as an adjunct to America and especially for the accommodation of emancipated negroes, is proving a dismal failure from the view of the American tradesman. "The outlook for Liberia," says Consul-General Lyon, of Monrovia, "from a commercial and industrial view point is discouraging. The country has been practically abandoned by its alma mater, and seems to exist only for the purpose of being exploited by European countries. Trade and commerce between the United States and Liberia should have prospered, but have dwindled almost to the vanishing point." Of the 2,000,000 population one-tenth are American negroes and the remainder natives.

A hazing bill was agreed upon yesterday by the subcommittee sent to Annapolis to investigate discipline there. The bill will be reported today to the full committee on naval affairs and doubtless will be introduced in the House in a few days. It provides for a graduated system of punishment for hazing, empowers the Secretary of the Navy to dismiss midshipmen when he sees fit and makes it possible for him to have cases of hazing investigated by courts-martial.

News of the Day.

Lieutenant Schmidt, the leader of the mutiny in the Black Sea fleet at Sebastopol, was executed yesterday.

The war party among the coal mine operators is in control at Indianapolis and a strike now seems inevitable.

Germany's efforts to round up the southwest African rebels has failed, and it is announced that to date the insurrection has cost $150,000,000.

The Methodist preachers' meeting of New York has denounced the wealthy owners of property used in the white slave traffic as equally guilty with the inmates.

Anthony Comstock, in the Methodist Preachers' meeting in New York city, yesterday charged Rev. Dr. Thomas R. Slicer with being in the pay of race-track men.

One hundred and fifty boys and girls of the Haverhill (Mass.) Manual Training and High Schools were saved yesterday from a fire panic by the heroism of John Bourne, a teacher, who led them through flames and smoke.

Twelve miners employed at the Shenandoah mine, near Silverton, Col., were caught by a great snowslide yesterday and swept to their death. Their bodies have not yet been recovered. Assistance has been summoned from Silverton to help dig the victims from beneath the snow.

If the President signs or vetoes the railroad rate bill he has the pen to do it with. Representative Kinkaid of Nebraska, called at the White House yesterday and gave the instrument to President Roosevelt. The pen was made by T. G. Harris, wheelright, for the Quartermaster at Fort Robinson, Nebraska, and is of plain steel and black wood. The President promised to sign or veto the measure with Mr. Harris's pen when Congress sent him the document.

According to the New York Press, it is rumored that Elihu Root, Secretary of State, is to be the administration's candidate for the Senate to succeed Chauncey M. Depew. It is also rumored, according to the Press, that Senator Depew is being urged to keep his place until after the Albany legislature adjourns, that no factional or personal controversy may be interjected into the legislature's proceedings, and that the President and his associates will endeavor to have Gov. Higgins send Root to the Senate as a recess appointee.

Secretary Taft will undertake to explain just why General Leonard Wood was given something like $1,100 to defray his expenses when coming home from his post last summer to undergo a surgical operation at Boston. Gen. Wood was allowed mileage both ways, coming and going by different routes. Secretary Taft will appear before the Senate military affairs committee this week and furnish details regarding the payment to General Wood. There is a disposition among Senators, especially the democrats, to make it rather unpleasant for Gen. Wood.

It is feared that at least 20 miners have lost their lives in the snowslides which have cut off from all outside communication 600 miners employed in the various mines within a radius of 20 miles from Ouray, Col. The exact number of deaths will not be known for days. As many as 25 mines are completely isolated. The damage may reach $1,000,000. At the Camp Bird Mine, which is four miles from the Bird Mills, a snowslide late Sunday evening completely isolated 50 or more miners employed there and, as the provision house was carried away, it is certain they are in urgent need of food.

Information was received by the Navy Department yesterday announcing the arrival at Alexandria, Egypt, of the protected cruiser Tacoma, a part of the squadron now cruising in the Mediterranean under the command of Rear-Admiral Charles Sigsbee. It was officially admitted at the Navy Department this morning that the cruisers Chattanooga and Galveston of this squadron would sail from Alexandria in a few days for the Asiatic station, for service in Chinese waters. The other two vessels of the squadron, the armored cruiser Brooklyn and the cruiser Tacoma, will be held in Mediterranean waters pending developments in China. If the situation becomes critical, as it is feared it will, these two additional ships will be sent also to reinforce the American fleet in the Orient.

CONGRESSIONAL.

There were three speeches on the railroad rate bill in the Senate yesterday, Messrs. McCreary, Bailey and Heyburn being the orators. Mr. McCreary announced his determination to vote for the bill whether amended or not, but said that he would not object to a reasonable provision for the review of the Interstate Commerce Commission's findings. Mr. Bailey replied to criticisms of his suggestion for a prohibition in the bill against the suspension of the commission's orders by the courts below the Supreme Court. He contended that Congress had the absolute power to prescribe limitations for the courts which it creates, and cited a large number of decisions in support of his position. Mr. Heyburn advocated a review provision, but expressed the opinion that even if it were omitted no person could be deprived of his right of admission to the courts.

It is practically settled that the Senate will adopt the House railroad rate bill with an amendment providing for a judicial review.

The House yesterday passed the bill abolishing the grade of lieutenant general, with an amendment making possible the promotion of Generals Corbin and MacArthur to that grade.

The retirement of aged clerks received the attention of the House yesterday. Mr. Tawney, chairman of the appropriations committee, advocating the 70 year retirement provision.

The House committee on postoffices and postroads reported the postoffice appropriation bill to the House yesterday. It provides for an expenditure of $191,373,848 for the fiscal year 1907, or $913,221 less than the modified estimates of the Postoffice Department. This amount exceeds the appropriation for 1996 by $10,351,755.

Gen. Grosvenor made a short speech defending the President, Gen. Wood, and the American troops in the Philippines from the criticism made in the House last Friday.

General debate on the legislative bill ended with a two hours' speech by Chairman Tawney, of the appropriations committee. The bill will be considered under the five-minute rule today, when amendments will be in order.

In the Corporation Court at Charlottesville yesterday the case against Duncan, Michie and Hawkins, charged with blackmailing the late Robert D. Ballantine, were continued on account of the illness of the wife of one of the accused, to April 18, at which time, Judge Morris stated he would insist upon a trial unless there were very strong grounds for postponement. The distributing of the back pay for for volunteers in the Spanish war began in Richmond yesterday by Major Sol. Cutchins. The money arrived yesterday and will be sent to the men by mail. Governor Swanson has received from the U. S. Treasury three warrants, aggregating $61,367.48, to be distributed among the 3,000 white and colored Spanish-American war veterans in Virginia, each of whom will get something like $20. E. A. James, chairman, has called a meeting of the democratic executive committee of the Fifth congressional district, to be held at Martinsville Monday, April 2, for the purpose of fixing a date for the nomination of a candidate or two candidates for a representative in Congress from the Danville district to be voted for in the regular election in November, and for such other business as may come before the committee. The Fifth district is now without a representative in Congress, on account of the election of former Congressman C. A. Swanson to be governor. The new congressman will probably fill both the unexpired and the regular term.

Mrs. McDonald to Marry.

The engagement has been announced at Indianapolis of Mrs. Josephine McDonald, widow of United States Senator Joseph A. McDonald, and C. B. Cones, president of the Cones Garment Company, one of the city's richest men. The bride-elect is 75 and the bride-groom a few years her senior.

Mrs. McDonald was pronounced by Matthew Arnold, who met her in Washington, the most beautiful woman in the world. A Denver newspaper published her protrait and a Denver banker's wife, whose cook had pinned it on the kitchen wall, was astonished to hear the milkman say one morning: "Yes, a very good likeness." She asked him if he had ever seen Mrs. McDonald, and he replied: "She was my wife."

This, it is said, proved to be the case, as Mrs. McDonald had divorced him previous to her marriage to the Indian Senator. Her divorce and the law suits following Senator McDonald's death, by which the McDonald children by the previous marriage sought to break the will, caused a sensation.

Came Back to Wed.

Alphonse Zelaya, son of the President of Nicaragua, has returned to Washington to wed his sweetheart, Miss Stella Baker, from whose side he was kidnapped last December and returned to his parents in Managua. Miss Baker expected her fiance to arrive from New Orleans yesterday, but a wreck delayed the train. When Mr. Zelaya reached Washington plans for the wedding were completed. After young Zelaya's sensational kidnapping he was returned to his home, still avowing his love for Miss Baker and declaring that he would return to make her his wife. He used every argument with his distinguished father, but all failed, until the young man declared that if he were not allowed to wed Miss Baker he would commit suicide, as his elder brother had done because he was not permitted to wed the woman he loved. The President was finally won over, and as the boy reached his majority a few weeks ago he received his parents' consent to come back to America and marry the young American girl.

Today's Telegraphic News

Arrived at an Agreement.

London, March 20.—The Evening News hears on excellent authority that France and Germany have arrived at an agreement at Algeciras and that all danger of a disagreement in the international conference is past. Continuing the paper says that a complete understanding has been arrived at on the subjects of the policing of Morocco and the division of the shares in the State bank, the two questions which have caused all the difficulty. A detailed statement as to the manner in which these questions have been settled is expected in a few days.

The indications are, from reports received here today, that the Algeciras conference has apparently reached a favorable conclusion of its labors. The news has favorably affected the exchanges and many securities enjoyed a marked rise.

Washington, March 20.—The advices sent to the State Department by Ambassador White at Algeciras indicate a settlement of the Moroccan police and finance questions in the course of a few days, leaving only the formal drafting of an agreement to keep the delegates at work.

Fight Among Fishermen

Lisbon, March 20—Portuguese fishermen at Port Nazareth, near Oporto, attacked a number of Spaniards who were accused of illegal fishing. All the Spaniards in the harbor rushed to the assistance of their countrymen and a pitched battle followed. The Portuguese fishermen were outnumbered and were getting the worst of the fight, when a squadron of cavalry was called to their assistance and put an end to the battle. The casualties among the Portuguese fishermen and soldiers numbered twelve, while seventeen Spaniards were killed or wounded. Twenty-seven Spaniards were arrested. About fifty of their party succeeded in reaching their boats and put to sea in the face of a storm.

Exiled to Siberia.

Moscow, Russia, March 20.—One hundred and sixty political prisoners from the Butyr prison near Moscow have been exiled to the most remote province of northeastern Siberia. Statistics which have been gathered there during the year show that 397 political prisoners have been executed. The fear of revolutionary outbreaks is so great that the Moscow garrison has been reinforced with a regiment of dragoons and a battery of artillery. At the five railway stations in this city military trains, each equipped with a company of infantry and two maxim guns, are held in readiness day and night in order to be prepared to crush any attempts to start a new railway strike.

Railroad Accident.

Shamokin, Pa., March 20.—A fast freight train on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad ran into a pile of heavy lumber, which had dropped from a local freight a half hour before on a high curved embankment, a mile north of the town early this morning, and the engine and a dozen cars plunged down into Shamokin creek. The engineer, Harry Fink, of Tamaqua, was buried in the wreckage, and his body has not yet been found. Fireman Charles Diefenderfer and Brakeman Murray Olyphant were hurled down the bank and escaped serious injury.

Russian Agents Assassinated.

Radom, Russian Poland, March 20.—Two men walked up from behind two elderly gentlemen on one of the principal streets here today, and discharging revolvers at their heads, killed them instantly. The assailants hailed a cab and drove off quietly, although the thoroughfare was thronged with people. Investigation shows that the murdered men were government agents who had been dispatched here from Warsaw to track political offenders.

Killed and Injured by Tornado.

New Orleans, March 20.—Reports received here from Meridian, Miss., are to the effect that a number of persons were killed and injured in a tornado which swept through the town of Brooklyn, Miss., last night. Every house in the town is reported to have been razed and considerable damage done in the near by country districts. Owing to communication with Brooklyn being interrupted, the alarming reports regarding loss of life cannot be verified.

Steamer Ashore.

New York, March 20.—A dispatch from Fire Island this morning states that the Norweigan steamer Bodo, bound from Port Antonio for New York, with a cargo of fruit, is ashore ten miles west of Fire Island. The steamer stranded last night during the thick weather. The vessel is reported to be in good condition and is not as yet leaking. The Bodo is a small vessel. She registers only 398 tons. The crew has been rescued.

Battle in India.

Peshawar, India, March 20.—Details have reached here in regard to a battle which was fought on March 14 between the forces of the Khan of Barwa and the Miangul of Monda. During the battle the Khan lost 80 men while the Miangul was wounded and twelve of his men killed. The Khan captured two villages and a fort. Further hostilities are expected in the near future.

Spanish Cabinet to Resign.

Madrid, Spain, March 20.—The government has decided to resign owing to recently parliamentary events which have weakened its power. It is expected that King Alfonso will call upon Premier Moret to reform the Cabinet and that most of the present members of the ministry will retain portfolios. Parliament will be closed indefinitely.

The Astor-Shaw Wedding.

London, March 20.—Rumor has it that Waldorf Astor, son of William Waldorf Astor, who is to marry Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw in April, will receive from his father the Cliveden estate and $100,000 a year. This is in addition to $50,000 which the young man will receive as a wedding present.

Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, has again made it clear to republican leaders that he will not serve in another campaign as chairman of the republican congressional committee.

Well Worth Trying

W. H. Brown, the popular pension attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., says: "Next to a pension, the best thing to get is Dr. King's New Life Pills." He writes: "They keep my family in splendid health." Quick cure for Headache, Constipation and Biliousness 25c. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store.

Negro Lynched.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 20.—Ed. Johnson, a negro, was taken from jail last night by a mob of 75 men and hanged to a beam of the county bridge over the Tennessee river. The rope broke and the negroes body fell and the mob quickly riddled him with bullets. The sheriff and the jailer were locked in a room while the mob secured the prisoner. There was no disorder. The negro was to have been legally hanged today, but the United States Supreme Court yesterday granted a stay of execution and this action served to anger the citizens. This was the third attempt to lynch Johnson, who was convicted of criminal assault on Miss Nevada Taylor, a white woman.

Washington, March 20.—When the mob in Chattanooga last night lynched Ed Johnson, a negro convicted of rape and sentenced to death, the majesty of an order staying the execution entered by the Supreme Court of the United States was outraged. For the first time in the memory of man a mandate of the Supreme Court was nullified. It is believed that Chief Justice Fuller and the associate justices of the court will take immediate action to determine where the contempt lies, and Marshal Wright, probably assisted by the Department of Justice, will be instructed to visit the castigation of the court upon those guilty of laxity in permitting a person, protected by the order of the tribunal, to be put to death in violation of law. Justices who were asked for an opinion of the case today refused to talk, saying it was a matter which might come before the court for final disposition. Inquiries were referred to the orders sent to Tennessee yesterday for an idea of what offenses had been committed in the lynching of Johnson.

The Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 20.—The rift in the rank of the mine operators is rapidly spreading. Among both operators and miners the probability of a strike affecting at least a large portion of the coal fields of the country is today regarded as stronger than at any time since the miners first met here in January. The operators and miners went into joint session at 10 o'clock this morning at Tomlinson Hall. While such a meeting has been confidently expected the operators did not definitely decide to enter another conference until next Monday. This morning J. H. Winder, the new leader of the operators, and President Mitchell, of the miners, got together and decided to hold the combined session at once. Following their decision of yesterday, the operators will observe the unit rule in any action they take in joint conference. The possibility which thus opens for a split between the forces of Francis L. Robbins, deposed leader of the operators, who favors consessions to the miners, and the forces representing great railroad interests headed by J. P. Winder, of Ohio, is secretly considered serious by some of the operators.

Captain's Wife Drowned.

New London Conn., March 20.—Barge No. 4, of the New England Transportation Company, coal laden, sank at her dock in East New London during the storm last night. Mrs. Angelina Bush, wife of Captain David D. Bush, was drowned. She was 71 years old. Captain Bush and his wife were awakened by water pouring into their cabin. They rushed on deck and Captain Bush started to get his wife ashore. With her in his arms, Captain Bush swan half an hour in the water of Winthrop Cove shouting for help. Watchman Nelson and David Lynch heard his cries and went to his assistance and brought them ashore. Mrs. Bush was dead and her husband unconscious. He was taken to the Memorial Hospital, where he was revived. Captain Bush is 76 years old.

Striking Miners.

Lens, France, March 20.—The coal miners at Marle who had continued to work notwithstanding the strike among the miners, today joined the strike, increasing the number of those now out by 4,000. The strike agitators are now working to bring about a general strike of all the corporations in the district.

A crowd of striking miners, numbering 1,500 men carrying a red flag at their head, marched in procession to the city hall today and made a demonstration while the congress of miners was in session. A clash between the miners and the police followed and the miners were dispersed after a sharp fight. Broutchow, the leader of the miners, and five others were arrested.

Fruits and Vegetables Damaged.

Jackson, Miss., March 20.—Frost and ice wrought havoc with the fruit and vegetable crops in Mississippi, this morning, and the loss sustained through this source is impossible, at this time, to estimate. The thermometer was down to 20 degrees, and the frost was quite heavy, especially in the low places. Peach and pear trees in full bloom have been blighted, and it is feared that the crop is utterly ruined. Widespread disaster to the strawberry crop has also been wrought and reports from the truck farming districts state that all early vegetation has been killed.

Police Officers Killed.

Warsaw, Poland, March 20.—Two police officers were killed here last night and this brings the total number of police killed within a year up to 122. The governor has suspended the publication of the daily Praca Polska for the entire period of the electoral campaign because it advocated home rule for Poland.

Generals and Colonels Dismissed.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—The government has dismissed during the past three months 300 generals and colonels as unfit for active service, owing to a glut of officers. Many of those who have been dismissed have drawn pay for years but never had command of the smallest detachment of troops.

Schooner Wrecked.

Boston, March 20.—The three masted schooner C. C. Lane, of New Haven, bound from South Amboy, N. J., for Portland, loaded with a cargo of clay, struck on Boston light ledge last night in a blinding snow storm. She will be a total wreck. No lives were lost.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 20.—After an irregular and mixed opening the stock market developed moderate strength and prices made gains ranging all the way from 1 per cent. to 1¼ points. The volume of business was small and transactions were almost wholly between room traders. A number of these traders covered their large lines put out yesterday. This covering was about the only reason for the moderate gains during the first hour. Commission business did little.

It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and cure the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. Narrow Escape of a Family.

Pittsburg, March 20.—The entire family of John H. Williamson, postmaster and station agent at Glen Osborne on the Fort Wayne railroad, were found unconscious from asphyxiation at about 8:30 this morning. The family consisted of the father, mother, and five children and when found they were supposed to be in a moibund condition. The discovery was made by persons who had gone to the station to take a train for Pittsburg. Owing to the fact that the station was not open they suspected something was wrong and made an investigation. Going inside they found the entire family still in their beds, and unconscious. The house was filled with fumes of gas. After the windows had been thrown open, physicians were summoned and heroic efforts were made to resuscitate the victims of the accident. So far as can be learned now none of them are dead.

Mabel Page's Murderer.

Boston, March 20.—Rev. William Copley Winslow, an Episcopal clergyman and noted archaeologist, of this city, yesterday visited Charles L. Tucker in the east Cambridge jail. Tucker gave the clergyman his account of the death of his wife, how he came to break into pieces the knife with which the commonwealth claims he committed the murder of Mabel Page, of Weston; how slightly he knew Miss Page, and his actions on the morning of March 31, 1904, the day on which Miss Page met her death. Dr. Winslow says Tucker is in good health and spirits and looks as well as a man could who is under restraint. He also says that a monster petition seeking the commutation of Tucker's death sentence is to be prepared within the next few days and sent to Governor Guild.

Arrest of Blackmailers.

Scranton, Pa., March 20.—Paul Trapi, president of the Black Hand Society, and Guiseppi Cogliano, a confederate, were arrested here last night, caught in the act of seeking to blackmail Gouvanni Fazio, an Italian merchant, out of $500. Failing to receive this they told him that they would blow up his place. Fazio's place was dynamited on New Year's Day. Previous to that he received tarestening letters. Later the letters began to come again and finally the two men called on him. He gave them thirty dollars in marked bills and yesternay when the blackmailers called detectives were hiding in his house. They watched and listened by means of a hole bored through a door and when the culprits had thoroughly committed themselves the detectives leaped ont with drawn revolvers and made the arrest.

Anxiety as to Gold Supply.

Liverpool, March 20.—The Post says it is reported that financiers are about to make representations to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Hon. Herbert Henry Aisquith, regarding the withdrawal of Chinese labor in South Africa on the ground that the gold supply of the world will be diminished with most serious results to the money markets, having the gravest consequences not only in London but in America and Germany.

Rumored Labor Troubles.

Reference was made in the Gazette yesterday to rumored labor troubles affecting one of our largest manufacturing firms. In an interview with a representative of the Gazette an officer of the Portner Brewing Company admitted today that their concern was the one referred to, and stated that the article in question was correct in so far as it related to the renewal of contracts April 1, but incorrect in that they had refused to renew them, as the company has, as yet, taken no action thereon. He said that if it were merely the renewal of the previous contracts, they would be accepted without question, but the new contracts demanded are so onerous in their provisions as to amount practically to confiscation. Not only are increases in wages demanded, but the hours and conditions of employment are so restricted that it would be impossible to operate the plant in summer, during which season practically all the business is done. It was stated that the employees of the Portner Brewery now work ten hours in summer and eight hours in winter, while almost all the brewery competitors, including some of the largest plants in the country, work their men nine to twelve hours all the year round, for less wages, under contracts with the same unions. The new contracts not only demand an eight-hour day all the year round, but an increase in wages averaging fifteen per cent, which would eliminate them as competitors with breweries working longer hours and paying less wages. As their business is nearly all shipping, it is just this class of competition they have to meet. It was brought out that the Portner Company has increased wages and reduced hours during the past three years from ten to twenty per cent., and now an additional increase of fifteen per cent in wages and a further twenty per cent. reduction of hours in summer is demanded.

Virginia Conference.

The Virginia Annual Conference closed at Covington, Sunday, March 18th. The Bishop announced at the close of the Conference that the Alexandria District had been placed in the Baltimore and Wilmington Conferences. Phoebus and Claremont were put into the Wilmington Conference, and the other appointments into the Baltimore Conference. The next session will be held in September, 1906, at Eagle Rock, Va., when the remaining two districts will go into the Holston and West Virginia Conferences. The appointments for the Alexandria District were: Alexandria, J. A. Jeffers; Arlington, Wm. Pierpoint; Accotink, W. S. Landstreet; Herndon, W. F. Miller; Waterford, W. S. Lytle; Garrisonville, J. Halpenny. Falls Church, Hillsboro, Manassas and Berryville were left to be supplied by the Baltimore Conference at its session next week in Baltimore. The preachers of the Alexandria District will attend the Baltimore Conference next week, and be appointed with the other preachers of the Baltimore Conference, when the appointments are made. Bishop Fowler will preside.

Celebration and Social.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Division No. 2, to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, celebrated St. Patrick's Day last night in St. Mary's Hall with a musical programme, consisting of recitations and vocal and instrumental solos. St. Patrick was well honored by the number of Irish odes sung to his memory by good vocal talent. Division No. 1, Gentleman's Auxiliary, attended and also assisted the ladies in the calls made upon them. Recitations were given by Rev. Father Cavanaugh, of Boston; also by Miss Catherine Birrell. Miss Annie Gorman presided at the piano, and her vocal as well as instrumental solos were well appreciated by the members. Other solos were sung by Rev. Father Cavanaugh, Mr. E. Downey and Miss Mary Gorman, after which there was dancing. Refreshments were served during the evening and all left the hall with recollections of a well spent evening.

Collision in the Bay.

As was stated yesterday, the steamer Norfolk and the fishing schooner Mary P. Misquita were in collision early Sunday night near Old Point in Chesapeake bay. Additional details show that the steamer was more seriously damaged than the schooner, and, according to the statements made by the officers of the Norfolk, the schooner was responsible for the collision. They state that the accident was caused by the schooner changing her course and attempting to cross the steamer's bow. The steamer's engines was backed as soon as the schooner changed her course, but her headway could not be stopped before the schooner struck her. The Newport News will take the place of the Norfolk on the route, and it is understood the latter steamer will go to Newport News to have the damaged joiner work repaired and for her spring overhauling. The cost, it is supposed, will be about $1,000.

A Card From the Trades Council.

Alexandria, Va., March 19, 1906.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

At tonight's meeting of this body an article which appeared in your paper of this date stating that it was rumored that a strike of the employees in one of the largest manufacturing plants of this city was about to occur, was fully discussed. Delegates from different local unions denied that there was any such strike under consideration among their men. Inasmuch as there is but one firm considering new contracts at this time, it is easy for members of this organization to surmise what plant is referred to in the article mentioned. Therefore the delegates from the organization having jurisdiction over the employees of this plant desire to deny most emphatically that any such strike is under consideration; neither has the firm refused to sign new contracts, as stated. On the the contrary, negotiations are progressing satisfactorily.

As the article referred to, while no doubt published by you in good faith, does these men quite an injustice, you are respectfully requested to publish the above in Tuesday's issue of your paper.

Respectfully,

THE TRADES COUNCIL,
BY E. J. HARRISON, Sec'y.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Lady Maccabees will meet tonight for practice and drill.

A fire was discovered last night in the cellar of a house on the west side of Lee street, between Wolfe and Wilkes. The flames were subdued before any serious damage resulted.

The snow and rain of yesterday was followed throughout the night by cloudy and threatening weather. Clearing conditions, however, set in early this morning, accompanied by a crisp northwest wind.

Mr. James F. Berry, died at the Soldiers' Home Hospital in Washington yesterday. The deceased married Miss Virginia Lyles, of this city. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Mr. John T. Nalls, whose stable in Friendship alley was entered one night recently and his horse stolen, yesterday found the animal in a stable in Washington, where it had been placed by a colored man. The police are searching for the darkey.

Because of the absence of Justice Gould, of Criminal Court No. 1, of Washington, who was indisposed yesterday, the second trial of William R. Pruitt, indicted for murder in the second degree in connection with the death of William H. Steele, was postponed until this morning when a jury was secured and the case proceeded.

The electric railway train which left this city for Washington at 8 o'clock last Saturday morning side-wiped a brick yard wagon at Arlington Junction and overturned the vehicle. No material damage resulted to the train or the wagon. It is said that three similar accidents have occurred at that point recently.

Jail officials say that W. H. Hansborough, alias Si. Compton, did not pull the stitches from his head as was stated yesterday, but that the prisoner had a fight of coughing which loosened the same. Mr. William Candler, the warden, immediately secured a physician who rendered the necessary surgical assistance.

SENATE.

With a view of uniting democratic sentiment upon the railway rate question, Mr. Overman introduced an amendment which he will offer to the Hepburn bill. It prohibits any District or Circuit Court from issuing a writ of injunction or interlocutory decree, upon the commission's rate, without five days notice to the adverse party of time and place of making such application or until the petition and answer has been filed and hearing had.

The Senate took up the fortifications appropriation bill today immediately at the conclusion of routine business.

Mr. Lodge objected to a committee amendment, cutting out Subig Bay from the benefits of appropriations made for fortifications in the Philippines. He declared that two and a half million dollars had already been expended there, and that even if the Philippines were to be abandoned, that station should be retained as a naval station.

HOUSE.

In committee of the whole the House today read the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill for amendments.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

A dispatch from San Francisco says that John D. Spreckels, the sugar king, who has been critically ill, is believed to be dying.

A dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says that the Standard Oil Company announced here today that it has absorbed and taken over the business of the Republic Oil Company.

Elmer E. Smathers, owner of Major Delmar, this morning in New York, filed answer to the suit brought by the Memphis Trotting Association, to recover the gold cup trophpy won by Smathers at Memphis, in October, 1904, when Major Delmar defeated Lou Dillon. The suit was brought on the ground that Lou Dillon was drugged and lost the race in consequence. Smathers enters an emphatic denial of the charges.

After the Meat Trust.

Declaring that the case is a crucial one in that an adverse decision will cripple the Government in its attempts to enforce the law of the land, Attorney General William H. Moody yesterday, in Federal Court, in Chicago, began the closing argument for the Government in the beef trust company case In the course of his address the Attorney General declared that the Government is not seeking the punishment of a corporation, but "the punishment of the living, breathing human beings who have committed the wrong, and the Government and the people of the United States will be satisfied with nothing less than that."

This is the case in which is to be decided whether or not the beef packers are immune from prosecution because of their having given information to Commissioner of Corporations Garfield. The trial of the packers themselves cannot be begun until this issue is decided favorably to the Government's contention.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 20, 1906.

John G. Rockefeller.

Mr. Rockefeller is in his sixty-seventh year and a few years ago was seized with a severe nervous trouble. He grew bald so that there was not a single hair on his head. He suddenly took a notion to wear a wig, and though the richest man in the world he purchased an ill-fitting wig, which caused people to chuckle when they saw it. Mr. Rockefeller did another surprising thing at his home in Cleveland, by inviting the newspaper humorists to his home. He expressed a desire to become a member of the Jokesmiths' Union, which was an extraordinary thing to do for one of Mr. Rockefeller's habits and temperament. Another surprise was caused when he walked barefoot on the dewy grass each morning before breakfast. Then he took to wearing a newspaper beneath his vest to keep warm. On one occasion he saw a reporter in church and sat down beside him and told the newspaper man that posterity would do justice to him. Mr. Rockefeller's aversion to reporters and publicity is well known, and the incident caused talk. Another time Mr. Rockefeller saw some of his friends at his Fifth avenue church and solemnly advised them to eat cheese and that would do them a world of good. Once he obtained a bushel of potatoes and inside of each one he stuffed a five dollar gold piece, and then sent the potatoes to his pastor in Cleveland, the Rev. Dr. Eaton. These incidents, as well as many others, are pointed out, as indications that the oil magnate was declining in his mental powers. Worry over the attacks of the press and pulpit on his business methods together with the agitation about "tainted" money contributed to the decline in Mr. Rockefeller's mental powers. Mr. Rockefeller worried exceedingly over the condition of his eldest daughter, Mrs. Strong, who is now in Cannes, France, where she is under the care of a specialist in nervous diseases. Mrs. Strong has a delusion that she will die in poverty. Mrs. Strong has been ill for some time. A noted specialist in nervous troubles is in constant attendance on Mr. Rockefeller in Lakewood. No one is permitted near the house, as armed guards turn anyone away who attempt to approach the house. At night three electric search lights sweep the roads by which an intruder might reach the house.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Olive Oil?

The Census Bureau yesterday issued a bulletin on cottonseed products, which shows that the by-products of the great staple in themselves are worthy of considerable consideration, in that the seed from which they are made amounted in cost last year to about $52,000,000.

D. C. Roper, special agent of the bureau, and an authority on cottonseed products, stated that the public in general knew little about the extent cottonseed oil is used. Nearly all of the lard and oleomargarine used is adulterated with cottonseed oil, and it is sold in the pure state for cooking purposes. Olive oil, according to Consul Skinner, of Marseilles, no longer exists in the pure state. If olive oil were served on a salad it would be repulsive to the average taste, which is accustomed to cottonseed oil.

The best safeguard against headaches, constipation and liver troubles is DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They don't gripe. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quick changes from hot to cold and back again try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffling, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are ended by Ely's Cream Balm. This honest and positive remedy contains no cocaine, mercury, nor other harmful ingredient. The worst cases are cured in a short time. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Nothing More Delicious

than that WHITE CLOVER HONEY we are offering you. It is the clearest and best ever sold on this market and would bring fancy prices elsewhere. We have a few pounds left and are going to sacrifice it right here at home at 15c a pound section. Order quick.

It's a genuine pleasure to see how many of these FAT PRUNES we send out in a day. Price still the same—4 pounds for a quarter.

Josh Billings said, "If you have to go out before breakfast, eat your breakfast first." If he were here today he would add, "At least drink a strong cup of Yates's Bourbon Coffee." It's the right thing in the right place and invigorates the system like no other Coffee.
